PERSONAL.—Miss Edith Rutherford, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Mr. John Chapman, the deputy collector who was recently shot and wounded in Mecklenburg county by government officers, returned yesterday to his duty in the office of his father, Colonel William H. Chapman, revenue agent in Lynchburg.

Miss Annie Ashley very delightfully entertained the Junior Club at the residence of her father, Captain H. C. Ashley, on Thursday evening. The prizes were won by Miss Ann Washington and Mr. Edmund Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lycurgus E. Uhler have issued cards for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Anne Hough Uhler and Mr. Oliver, of Washington, which is to take place on the evening of the 17th inst. at their home on south Washington street, in this city.

Governor Smith, of Maryland, has appointed Mr. Charles A. Chipley a member of his staff with the office of quartermaster general. General Chipley is a native of Alexandria and for a long time was a prominent officer in the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

At a meeting of the vestry of St. Paul's Church on Thursday evening Judge J. K. M. Norton was elected a member of the vestry to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. W. H. Merbury.

Mr. G. J. Haines, a prominent resident of Fairfax county, is seriously ill at his home at Accotink.

Gardner, the little son of Mr. O. F. Carter, is seriously ill at his home on Washington street.

It is understood that for the State constitutional convention Colonel Francis L. Smith and Mr. John M. Johnson will be candidates.

Miss Lillian Foote is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. C. Lynn, of Alexandria. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davis, of Alexandria, were the guests of their relatives here this week. [Manassas Journal.]

Mrs. Marshall L. King, who has been spending the holidays with her father, Mr. L. T. Hackett, in Charlottesville, returned to her home in this city yesterday.

Dr. Wm. Gibson has recovered from his recent indisposition.

Mr. John Dwyer, who has been quite sick, is out again.

U. D. C.—The monthly meeting of the Mary-Cecile Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met in Lee Camp Hall on Thursday. Mrs. D. J. Howell presiding. The meeting was one of unusual interest, several matters of importance to the chapter being discussed, and after the business was disposed of the delegate to the general convention, held in Montgomery, Alabama, gave a very interesting account of the business transacted, receptions attended, historic places visited, etc. Among the beautiful monuments erected to our heroes one in Montgomery was particularly noticeable for its grandeur, from the four sides of which the following was copied:

ARTILLERY.
When this historic shaft shall crumble in
In ages hence, in woman's heart will be
A folded flag, a thrilling page unrolled,
A deathless song of southern chivalry.

INFANTRY.
Fame's temple boasts no higher name,
No King is grander on his throne;
No glory shines with brighter beam—
The name of patriot stands alone.

CAVALRY.
The knights of the knightly race,
Who since the days of old
Have kept the light of chivalry
A light in hearts of gold.

NAVY.
The seamen of Confederate fame,
Started the wondering world;
For braver fight was never fought,
And fairer flag was never furled.

A DANCE.—The Alexandria German Club gave their New Year's german at McBurney's Hall last night, which was well attended. The german was led by Dr. Louis Green with Miss Campbell.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.
Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE TABLETS. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVES'S signature on each box. 25c.

The most soothing, healing and antiseptic application ever devised is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It relieves at once and cures piles, sore, eczema and skin diseases. Beware of imitations.

RELIEF FIRE COMPANY.—The annual meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company was held last night when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Park Agnew, president; J. H. Trimyer, first vice president; Leopold Ruben, treasurer; J. H. Mansfield, secretary; R. L. Latham, recording secretary; R. M. Latham, foreman; W. T. Rogers, first assistant foreman; and A. W. Melchior, second assistant foreman. Driver J. E. Clapdore was recommended to the board of fire wardens for reappointment. Two new members were elected and one application for membership was received. The Relief company will have a banquet on February 22.

OPERA HOUSE.—The story of the comedy, "Where is Cobb?" affords opportunity for funny complications and situations. The dialogue from beginning to end is terse and sparkling. The play is filled with an unmistakable brand of rich humor and the cream of wit. And these, together with the clever work of every member of the company, serve to keep the audience constantly agitated with successive ripples and waves of laughter from the rise of the first act curtain till its final fall. The comedy will be presented at the Opera House Monday night.

RAILWAY COMPANIES SUE.—Frederic B. Nichols yesterday filed suit in Washington against the Southern Railway Company and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to recover $10,000, claimed as damages for personal injuries. It is explained that the plaintiff was a passenger aboard one of the defendants' cars on October 3 last and was injured in a collision which took place between cars of the companies near Waterloo, in the county. Nichols declares that his injuries are permanent.

WILL NOT PRESIDE.—As heretofore stated, Judge Norton, of this city, has been requested by Judge Wallace to preside at the January term of the Corporation Court of Fredericksburg during the trial of W. A. Little, charged with withholding funds belonging to a client, but on account of business before the Court of Appeals Judge Norton will not be able to comply with the request. Judge Nicol, of the Circuit Court, will probably hold court for Judge Wallace.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—The week of prayer will be observed by union services next week and the following is the programme: Monday, in the M. E. Church South, Rev. Dr. Hunt; Tuesday, in the Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Warfield; Wednesday, in the Trinity M. E. Church, Rev. F. J. Brooke; Thursday, in the M. P. Church, Rev. Mr. Jeffers; Friday, in the Second Presbyterian Church, Rev. E. V. Regeater. All the services will begin at 7:30 p. m.

DEATH OF MR. BAYLEY.—Mr. W. H. C. Bayley died at his home in Washington yesterday evening in the 63rd year of his age. Mr. Bayley was a Virginian and served during the war in the Confederate army. For a long time past he has been connected with the gas works in Washington and was the father of Mr. H. Clay Bayley, recent superintendent of gas in this city.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs. Margaret Tennessee, widow of Samuel Tennessee, died suddenly last night at the home of her grandson, Mr. Stuart Smith, on south Fairfax street. The deceased had reached an advanced age. She leaves one child—Mrs. Catherine Smith.

LOCAL BREVITIES.
The Christmas music will be repeated at St. Paul's Church tomorrow.

Last night was cloudy and cool. Twenty-seven lodgers were at the station house.

An "Old Folk's Concert" will be given in the Parish Hall of St. Paul's Church, Tuesday evening, January 15.

Services will be held in the Railroad Reading Rooms at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon by Mr. W. A. Lewis, of the Seminary.

While skylarking this evening in the northern part of the city Fritz Mauch was accidentally shot in the cheek with a rifle by W. F. Myers.

The regular monthly meeting of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church South was held last night, and the officers elected at the December meeting were formally installed and other routine business was transacted.

The United States Court will meet on the 7th, the City Circuit Court on the 14th, and the Corporation Court on the 21st. The United States Circuit Court, Judge Waddill, will be opened at noon next Monday, but the juries will not be called until Tuesday.

The fishermen along the upper Rappahannock and Potomac rivers are actively at work preparing for the fishing season. Mr. Robert Jennings has already made one haul with his seine in Potomac creek, a tributary of the Potomac river, and caught a fine lot of pike.

Mount Vernon Council, Daughters of America, last night, at their council chamber, formally installed their recently elected officers. After the installation the members were tendered a banquet at the Concordia Hotel, and an enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

Mr. Anthony Smoot has had the boiler taken from his little steam launch, J. S. Douglas, and while the boat is laid up this winter the boiler will be overhauled and put in good order. Mr. Smoot will also have the engine of his boat overhauled and repairs will be made to her woodwork where necessary.

The remains of Mrs. Catharine E. Green, who died at the infirmary on Thursday, were taken to Washington today for interment in Oak Hill cemetery. She was the widow of the late John Green and mother of John S. P. Green, and was in her 87th year.

At the Free Methodist Church—general quarterly meeting, Rev. George Ekins in charge—service will be held tonight, tomorrow at 11 a. m., leave feast at 2:30 p. m., and preaching at 7:30 p. m.

A young girl named Katie Brown, employed in Washington, was taken ill on an electric train while she was on her way to this city yesterday evening and had to be assisted to her home.

But few country people were in market today and consequently a little country produce was offered. Prices show but little change. Turkeys sold from 12 to 15c a pound.

The Methodist Church at Del Ray will be dedicated tomorrow evening at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. J. H. Boyd and others will deliver addresses.

Miss Mary Ann Bosch was quite badly hurt a few days ago by falling on the sidewalk at the corner of Pitt and Wolfe streets.

Mr. Ira Cannon (not Dodd) died yesterday at his home on south Patrick street. He was a native of Dodd, Vt.

This Saturday Begins Our Twentieth January Sale of

Muslin Underwear
For Women, Misses and Children.

AS A RESULT of most careful preparation and timely placing of orders, we are enabled to start our January Sale of Muslin Underwear with the most thoroughly satisfactory assortment of strictly high class Undergarments we have yet shown.

There is no need of saying, and needless running into elaborations. And the average garment costs you about what the materials would sell for by the yard—in many cases, much less.

There is not a scant garment in the entire collection; for we never economize material at the sacrifice of comfort. Not a garment that is the least defective or out of style; all are in the latest and best-approved patterns, thorough in workmanship and finish—in short, possess that degree of refinement and general excellence which the people of Washington and vicinity have learned to expect from this store.

Besides the regular sizes and styles we show special styles, in extra sizes, for large women.

This sale also includes everything desirable in Infants' Wear, Aprons, Corsets, Silk Petticoats, and many novelties in Paris Lingerie.—Bridal Trousseaux, Negliges, Matinees, Breakfast Scaques, Boudoir Gowns, etc.—beautiful specimens of Parisian handiwork of our direct importation, in exclusive effects, and not obtainable anywhere else in Washington. The garments named below are the medium and lower-priced goods, and merely suggestive of a stock of underwear that is technically the best we have ever gathered.

NIGHT GOWNS. 50c—Muslin; good quality; high neck; yoke tucked in clusters of five tucks; cambric ruffle on neck and sleeves.

DRAWERS. 25c—Muslin or Cambric; with hem and fine pleats.

SHORT PETTICOATS. 50c—Muslin; cluster of tucks and embroidered ruffle.

CHEMISES. 50c—Muslin; square neck, trimmed with wide piece of embroidery; neck and armholes edged with narrow embroidery.

CORSET COVERS. 25c—Cambric hem-stitched yoke, edged with lace.

SPECIAL. 25c—down Straight-front Corsets, made of good quality cotton, in white or drab, 50c each.

Second floor.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

After the Christmas holidays,
Large quantities of fine potatoes are being received here consigned to Alexandria men's charge.

Wall street yesterday saw the biggest day's business in the history of the Stock exchange. The sales of stocks recorded on the ticker tape were 1,822,350 shares, but this took no account of old lots and leaves out many sales, of which, as is usual on a big day, the official exchange reporters failed to obtain a record. The actual sales were probably nearly 2,000,000 shares.

The Best Prescription for Chills and Fever is a bottle of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. 50c each.

When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its easily use prevents consumption.

DIED.
On Friday, January 4, 1901, at 6:15 p. m., MARGARET M. TENNISON, widow of the late Samuel Tennessee. Funeral from her late residence, 604 south Fairfax street, Monday afternoon, January 7, at 2 o'clock. The United States Circuit Court, Judge Waddill, will be opened at noon next Monday, but the juries will not be called until Tuesday.

R. E. LEE CAMP.—There will be a meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, on MONDAY, January 7th, at 7:30 p. m.

By order of the Commander,
JAN 5 21 E. H. O'BRIEN, Adj.

NOTICE. J. O. U. A. M.—The members of JAMES W. JACKSON COUNCIL, No. 55, Jr. O. U. A. M., are hereby requested to meet in their hall on Fairfax street, TOMORROW (Sunday) AFTERNOON, at one o'clock, to attend the funeral of our late member, Ira Cannon. The members of Alexandria and Belle Haven councils are respectfully invited to attend.
